

Revision Policy for Weekly Money and Banking Statistics

Data Governance and Statistics Department

December 2022

Revisions to Weekly Money and Banking Statistics are made in two ways according to the following rules:

1. Routine Revisions:

- There is no routine revision.

2. Non-Routine Revisions:

- Weekly Money and Banking Statistics are disseminated provisionally at the end of week following reference period and previous week's data is subject to revision.

- Review of primary statistics, design of new models, methodological changes, and application of new sources of statistics are among the reasons for non-routine revisions. In this context, all unplanned important revisions are announced on the website of the CBRT before the publication of revised statistics. The announcement presents the coverage of and the reasons for the revision.
