

Press Release on the CBRT Interbank Money Market Borrowing Limits

29 August 2018, No: 2018-34

It was announced in the Press Release on Financial Markets of 13 August 2018 that in the framework of the intraday and overnight standing facilities, the Central Bank would provide the banks with all the liquidity that they needed.

In the light of recent evaluations, the CBRT has decided that, to be effective from 29 August 2018, the banks' borrowing limits for overnight transactions at the Interbank Money Market established within the CBRT would be twice the limits applicable before 13 August 2018.
